General Announcements:

Rick gave an update on the current EAA YE Build. At the last meeting, there were 5 YE's that were doing the build. The group that was previously working on the fuselage went over to build the other half of the wing. They completed about 75% of the right wing. The other group that were working on the left wing half came over to build the vertical/horizontal stab. During the next meeting, they should complete that and be ready to get the airplane ready for covering. The next meeting will be 6 Jan '24.

I spoke to Ernie Wooldridge this evening before the meeting. He's still having severe back issues. He's trying everything short of surgery. Please keep him and his family in your prayers.
