General Announcements:

The EAA Young Eagle build: Tim Stebbins gave an update on the build progress. They are very close to completion. A maiden date has not yet been determined. Nick Munch offered to help with the maiden.

The president stated the new gate combo will be in place on Saturday Feb 14th. Be sure you have checked your email and wrote down the new combo before heading out to the field after Friday. Also members were reminded NOT to share the combo with anyone. Tell them to contact the President if they didn't get it.

KC Patton has agreed to continue as the club's coordinator with the KCPD and also as Field Maintenance coordinator for the future.

Safety:

President asked if anyone had any safety concerns, none were mentioned so a reminder to stay warm and dry when at the field.

Field Maintenance:

None as of yet.

Old Business:

Ron V. Suggested that we put a page on our website to link interesting YouTube videos pertaining to our hobby. We are considering that. But all posting will go through the club president for approval and be posted by the Web site team only. Still working on a page design for that.

New Business:

Winter Build Contest in full swing with 8 entries so far. Maiden day is last Saturday of March.

President asked, Does anyone wish to volunteer for this year's Club Safety Officer? None Duane will continue for now.

FPV pilots need to be aware of what video channels others are using when there are multiple flyers. The video channels will blank others on the same channel. Also a reminder that the FAA and AMA require you to have a spotter and the FCC requires a "Ham" license for your video transmitter.

Show and Tell:

Tim Stebbin brought a build of what AMA calls an EM1 racer. Kit build and he stated the kit was the best he had seen. This is an electric 25 class at about 100mph. They will be racing that as one of the three classes racing in May at Shelton Field.

Comments from the Membership: Ron asked about visiting guests. Guests of members are okay but they must have their AMA card with them and be accompanied by a member.

Adjourned: 7:34 p.m.
